For the fourth consecutive year, the sample respondents polled by C fore in western India have voted Campion School, Mumbai India’s #1 boys day school followed by St. Xavier’s Collegiate, Kolkata and St. John’s High, Chandigarh

The seating arrangement at the high end of the boys day schools Top 10 table is the same as in 2015, with St. Xavier’s Collegiate School, Kolkata ranked #2 nationally and #1 in West Bengal, followed by St. John’s High, Chandigarh at #3 and La Martiniere for Boys, Kolkata at #4. However, this year the #5 position at top table has been awarded to the vintage Bishop’s School, Pune (estb.1864), ranked a notch below in 2015.

Fr. B. Thomas, SJ, principal and secretary of St. Xavier’s Collegiate (estb.1860), is “happy” that this 156-year-old school which has 2,350 students and 94 teachers on its musters, has been second ranked for three years in a row. “We are humbled by the recognition and thank EducationWorld and your survey respondents for this honour. The excellent public reputation we have earned is the outcome of the continuous encouragement and motivation given by our teachers to students to excel, not only in academics but also in extra-curricular and sports education. I’m happy this focus on holistic education is reflected in your league table,” says Thomas
